The movement to sell eggs by weight is in the line of pure food, for they become lighter and more odorous with age.

After passing the appropriation bill for the Panama Canal, fifty members of the lower house are now on their way to the Isthmus to see the work.

Fresh whales are now quoted at $2400. If these luxuries of life continue to rise in price, some families will have to confine themselves to little cods and sardines.

WHALES.

Last summer I spent almost two weeks in the big pine woods, at my son Mack's. A few days after I got there Mrs. Driskell returned home from a campmeeting at Hallville, accompanied by her three children and my granddaughter, Jackie; the next day two sisters of Mrs. Driskell with three or four bonny girls and two or three fangling little boys arrived. What a glorious time these children had! Children from four families all together each day and long after "day" had buttoned on his black jacket with silver buttons!
Such romps, such plays as they had, was enough to put new life into the heart of a hermit. They were full of the campmeeting, and kept the woods vocal with sweet campmeeting songs. The refrain from one of these songs, with joyous childish tones is lingering with me yet.
"When we reach the halloleuh strand We'll take Jonah by the hand, And he'll tell us all about it, Over there, over there."

"Ha! Ha!" laughs one, "I wonder if you do believe in that old impossible fable."

Indeed I do,—and why impossible?
The Hand which made you and I—surely could make a whale and cause it to do the work appointed unto it. Right here I could make a point by proving how much better the ordinary whale does the work it was made to do, than many men—but time and space is pressing.

All up and down the river of life there are whales nibbling at the boys and girls; and they are not like Jonah's whale, God made—they are devil made and sent to do his work.

There is the great whale Infidelity, he doesn't nibble, he is swallowing the youth of the day, they have no faith in God, no faith in the good of the earth, no faith in each other. With no anchor they are drifting, drifting whether soever the whale unlabeled off-spring of Infidelity leads them.

Self-Indulgence is another monster; oh, the bonny boys he has set aside with his foul mark upon them. Little boys just entering upon their teens. Let me warn you. Don't believe the tales that bad men tell of boys which a ride on the back of old Self-Indulgence gives.

When he floats near you wiggling his tail and throwing up spurts of water, begging you to partake of his fury drink, or to ride with him in doubtful waters, run—yes, run, it is braver to get out of his way than to be all covered with slime.

Vanity is a little nibbler that floats near your dresser, girls; now we all love to see our nest well dressed, you could not look only if you tried, while your glossy hair, bright eyes and rosy skin is yours,—a young girl reminds me of a rose bud—one is just as sweet and pretious as the other, but after you are once dressed "all nonsense to stand before the glass waiting time that might be employed in so many ways; and the whole vanity might lead you into dark and troubled waters.

Old Envy is to be avoided. He is so treacherous and slimy and when he once gets hold of a boy or girl he pulls them right along by the side of the twin brothers, Leing and Gossip, and then you are in foul waters indeed.

We don't want our girls—the sweetest prettiest among all the pretty girls in this big state, to get into such doubtful company, and we don't want the boys to go among the whales either.

There is a sure way to keep from this blighting company. When the little fellows nibble round you drive them away, get away and keep away from the little ones; and the big fellows will never bother you.

Letter to Hal Singleton.

Dear Sir: They won't fool him any more with paste paint; they'll try something else.

Editor Sanleberry, Dover, Delaware, having used 35 gallons paste paint on his house, bought 35 gallons Devco for it. He had enough left for a new Sabbath 20 by 20 fence, and returned four gallons.

Paste paint has as many tricks as a bunco-steerer.

SO SOOTHING.

Its Influence Has Been Felt By So Many Jefferson Readers.

The soothing influence of relief After suffering from Itching Piles, Liver complaint and any itching of the skin, Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

Here's what one Jefferson citizen says:

Mrs. G. W. Grubbs, living five miles north of Jefferson, Texas, R. F. D. No. 2 says: "Some time ago, I was greatly annoyed and suffered considerably from a skin eruption in my feet. I tried nearly everything that was brought to my attention but none of the different preparations seemed to do me least good. I happened to run across an advertisement recommending Doan's Ointment for such troubles and concluded to try it and going to the J. F.
Crow Co.'s store, I procured three boxes of the Ointment. After the first few applications, I found that it was doing me good, so continued, with the result that the trouble disappeared.
There has never been any return of it since. Doan's Ointment is certainly a fine preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

March 25 and 26 AT JEFFERSON.

If you have an eye disease consult Dr. Adams, at Jefferson, March 25 and 26. Dr.
Adams visits Jefferson once a month. He has opened a permanent branch office here.
He is prepared to cure any eye disease or deformity that is known and proven by science to be curable. If you want to know facts about your eye trouble consult him.
He has been in this special practice for the past 15 years, therefore he promises to tell you facts and make no guesses. If he can cure you, he guarantees a cure. If he cannot cure you, he says so and shows you why your case is incurable. He holds references from hundreds of the leading business men, doctors, lawyers, and ministers of the State, who testify that he is an expert and keeps up-to-date in his line, and that his statements can be relied upon. He solicits close investigation. He holds references from many like the following who were led to his office and now see to read.
When a man makes cures like these people received, when a man treats such cases under a positive guarantee allowing them to place fee in bank when led to him and pay only if when they can leave satisfied to read. Is it not positive proof of his ability.
Read and then decide.

My wife was led to Dr. Adams office, he cured her good vision.

P. M. Howlett, saw mill mgr., Neacoches, Texas.

I was led for four years, and now see to read any print. I know Dr. Adams is an expert, Y. G. Brister, cattle dealer.

My mother was led every place she went for 10 years. She is 80 years, yet Dr. Adams gave her vision to go any place alone. I consider him an excellent physician.

E. H. Flynn, merchant, Bangs, Brown county, Texas.

My little daughter was led for many months, several of the oculists at Austin and San Antonio, failed to cure her, yet Dr. Adams gave her vision in 60 days and she is now in school.
I consider him second to none as an oculist.

R. K. Smith, merchant, 225
Commerce St., San Antonio, Texas.

I was led to his office, and could not see the houses here. I was led through the streets. I returned home in 30 days seeing to read. C. Rydell, farmer, Manor, Texas.

My mother is 85 years old, she was led for the past two years. Dr. Adams gave her reading vision in 30 days time.
He also cured me of a severe case of granulated lids. I know him to be an expert.

T. S. Seay, merchant, 10
Jacksonville, Texas.

I spent several years and much money trying to be cured of Chronic Granulated lids. I was treated at Atlanta, Ga., Chicago, Ill. and Fort Worth, Texas, yet I failed to get well. I met Dr. Adams and he guaranteed to cure me and give me reading vision, which he did in 60 days time.

D. W. Brenson, banker,
Midland, Texas.

I was blind with Cataracts. Dr.
Adams operated on me and gave me reading vision in 60 days time. I know many others like me, that he gave good vision.

Rev. P. H. Evans,
Belton, Texas.

"In 1897 I had a stomach disease.
Some physicians said dyspepsia, some consumption. One said I would not live until spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits, and doctors' prescriptions. I could not distinctly see anything. The day I met up one of your amanuenses and it happened to be my life-saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and able to live long and prosper."

great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol for dyspepsia. It is

Endorses Citizen.

Dear JIMPLECUTE: Will you grant me space to thank Citizen for his efforts in behalf of your town.
We might well say our town for we have felt the stigma of Jefferson's unequivocal reputation to the remote boundaries of our county.
Yes, we have felt the evil effects of its influence in our own homes and around our own firesides. The seething maelstrom of vice and infamy that has had its inception in Jefferson, not content with the destruction of the young and innocent of the town, has like the devil fish grasped within its tentacles boys and girls from the quiet country homes, squeezed the life-blood of true man and womanhood from their bodies and thrown them on the sea of time—wrecks of what they might have been, to drift into the ocean of eternity, sending back to earth the echo of the lost soul.

No, friendly Citizen you are not too harsh. Evils found should be handled without gloves, and it makes us entertain a greater respect for Jefferson to know that one person there has the nerve to beard the lion in his den; and besides, "Citizen" you have the heartly concurrence of every good man and woman in the county.

Why to our eternal shame it has been said that no peace officer could be elected to hold office in Jefferson unless he first made terms with the whiskey ring there, so that their nefarious practices might go on unchecked. Now, isn't that a stain upon us that we should blush to discuss?

Where is honor, where is virtue, where is true nobility of character that we must allow such imputations go unchallenged. Owing to the present state of affairs we have not the right to deny such charges, or even worse, should they be made. But by the help of God Almighty there will be a change. Lot did not save Sodom, but after a way was made for his escape fire came and destroyed that den of iniquity. So friendly "Citizen" write on. Mothers, wives, sisters and daughters, are praying that you may accomplish good with your true pen and that the many indeed would an influence mightier than the sword.

CITIZEN.

To Benefit Orphans.

A movement has been started by Mrs. R. A. Ferris to endow the Buckner Home for one hundred thousand. The idea is to have one thousand persons subscribe each to amount of one hundred dollars.

The prosperous conditions prevailing in Texas, and the idea that Texas people should show their appreciation of their welfare, which is the basis upon which a movement is being started, led by Mrs.
R. A. Ferris of Dallas, for the endowment of the Buckner Orphans' Home.

The plan in brief, as suggested by Mrs. Ferris, is that 1,000 people of this favored State, men, women and children of all denominations, contribute each $100, thereby creating a fund of $100,000, as the first endowment fund to the home, and that an invitation be extended to all the mothers in Texas to assist in the movement, as well as business and professional men in all lines and vocations, farmers and ministers of all denominations.

Mrs. Ferris expresses the belief that if those who hesitate to contribute to such a purpose be invited to visit the home, and should see the orphan children and the manner in which they are being tenderly cared for by Father Buckner, not one would hesitate a moment to contribute the $100 required as a part of the fund.—Dallas News.

Two Peculiar Birds.

The great bustard (Otis tarda), a bird still found in the southern provinces of Russia, is the heaviest European fowl. In size it exceeds the Norwegian blackcock. The old males attain a weight of thirty-five pounds, and where food is plentiful specimens weighing thirty-eight pounds and even forty pounds have been captured.
These birds have disappeared from western Europe, where once they were almost as numerous as partridges, and are seen only in small flocks in the sand hills skirting the lower valley of the Danube and here and there along the north coast of the Caspian. The hen lays eggs as big as ordinary pears.

A larger and heavier bird, the cassary, is incapable of flight, but it can kick with the strength of a mule, and uses the sharp, bony quills of its wings as a cock uses his spurs.—London Saturday Review.

Drying Preparations simply de- veloped.

dry catarrhs; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membranes and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drugs, inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell long 60c size. Ely Brothers, 50 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
